

Induce murder. Yet Zancannelli was convicted.

Of the open venire chosen for the Zancannelli case, composed largely of mine guards and others prejudiced against the miners, 33 remain as possible jurors in the Lawson case. A motion of the defense to secure an entire new panel has been overruled by Judge Hillyer.

TODAY'S TESTED RECIPE

By Caroline Coe

Meat Loaf.—One pound of beef and $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of pork, ground together, 1 cup of bread crumbs, 1 egg, a little butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of milk. Mix them all together, add a little salt, pepper and sage.

Bake in a deep tin, with a little water, as for roast. Baste occasionally.

LIBERTY BELL WILL CHIME AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Liberty bell is to make another exposition visit. It will be taken soon to the Panama-Pacific exposition to remain until the fair closes.

The chimes which announced the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, is not a "made in America" bell. It was brought from England and recast with words, "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all its inhabitants" inscribed on it.

LITTLE COATS FOR BETTY BROWN'S SUMMER GOWNS

Here it is again—the little coat that looms up so noticeably in every fashion parade!

It's charming when worn over light colored silk or poplin—it's invariably black taffeta or satin, though it is equally attractive made in mid-night blue, or in some color to match the dominant color in the skirt.

FASHION FLASHES

Women used to pay $20 for hats and $5 for shoes. This spring a $5 hat often adorns the head of a woman who's "all dressed up" in gay-colored shoes that cost $20.

The tailored suit that lacks the military touch of a leather belt, a pair of shoulder straps or standing collar is a rarity.

If women wear boots—and plenty of 'em do—will the 1830 styles in bootjacks be revived?
